

IEEE and MTT-S Membership

IEEE

The IEEE is a nonprofit, professional association with more than 367,000 members (including 73,000 students) in over 150 countries. This global organization helps support the development and application of technology and science around the world — for the benefit of humanity, the individual, and the profession.

- Online access to the tables of contents and expanded abstracts from over one million IEEE documents with full text-searching capability
- Free IEEE e-mail alias including virus scanning and optional spam filtering
- The IEEE Financial Advantage — negotiated exclusively for IEEE members

MTT-S

The IEEE Microwave Theory and Techniques Society (MTT-S) is a transnational society with more than 9,000 members and 80 chapters worldwide. Our Society promotes the advancement of microwave theory and its applications, at frequencies from 200 MHz to 1 THz and beyond. As we enter into an exciting future, our mission is to continue to understand and influence microwave technology.

Attendees who join the IEEE for $80.50 and MTT-S for $7.00 before the Symposium will save $185 on their registration fee. The price of an IEEE/MTT-S membership more than pays for itself!

Benefits of Membership

The benefits of IEEE membership include:

- Discounted conference registration rates
- Subscriptions to the award-winning IEEE Spectrum and online access to IEEE Potentials magazines

Half-year rates apply to new members only. New applications received between 1 March 2007 and 15 August 2007 will automatically be processed for half-year membership. An exception is if the applicant specifically requests their application be processed for the full year.
